Welcome to Maribor
Lying just at the foot of the Pohoreje Hills, Slovenia’s second largest city has always been tightly connected to skiing. The first time International Ski World Cup for women came to Maribor was way back in 1964 - and it has been returning ever since to see who would win the Golden Fox race. Alpine ski legends like Tina Maze, Lindsey Vonn, Mikaela Shiffrin, Anja Parson, Vreni Schneider, Sonja Nef, or Mateja Svet had already won, so it is time for our kids to start writing their own winning story at the race of future champions the LITTLE FOX RACE.

Welcome to the Little Fox race
In 2017, the ASK Branik Maribor, which is the organiser of the Golden Fox competition, decided to come up with the new ambitious event dedicated to only young skiers - the LITTLE FOX RACE. The aim was to let children in categories from U8 to U16 experience the atmosphere, organisation and the slope of a real FIS World Cup race. In its first edition of the LITTLE FOX RACE, more than 300 children from 7 countries joined and enjoyed the race of the future champions. Make sure to join us in 2020!
